

Parent Promise

The SJHS Parent promise is a pledge to set age-appropriate family guidelines for your children and know where they are going, whom they are with, what they will be doing, and when they are expected to return home.

Parents and guardians who sign the pledge will actively supervise all youth gatherings, will not allow the possession or use of alcohol, tobacco, or other drugs by youth, and set expectations to supervise youth parties to ensure that these social gatherings remain drug and alcohol free.

Parents who belong to this network know that when their children are at a party function with other "safe homes" parents present, their child is in a safe place free from alcohol and drugs. The SJHS Promise helps promote consistent guidelines for parents and young people as well as share names and phone numbers. The SJHS membership directory will be mailed to only those parents who give permission to release their information.
